Great Haddon Primary School: Statutory Consultation
Monday 10 November 2025 - Monday 22 December 2025

Hampton Academies Trust is planning to open its fourth primary school, Great Haddon, in September 2026. As part of the process for opening a school, we are required to consult with the local community and stakeholders about our plans. We view this as a good opportunity to hear your views. Great Haddon Primary School is due to open in September 2026 to Reception children and will be located on the new Great Haddon development. The school will open in temporary accommodation at Hampton College Primary Phase until the new building is ready.

How do I take part in the consultation?

In order to take part in the consultation process, please visit the trust's website. You are welcome to make comments and suggestions about our planned future provision. The new school's admissions policy is on the website, hardcopies are available on request.

Visit www.hamptonacademiestrust.org.uk or complete the form on the reverse and return to Hampton Gardens School.

Can I speak to someone about your plans?

We are holding drop-in open events at Hampton College Primary School for anyone who would like to hear more about our plans. If you are a parent of a child under 4 and live on the Great Haddon development, we are particularly keen to hear from you. All of these events will be attended by Dr Helen Price, Executive Headteacher, Caroline Behan, Finance Director and Karen Archibald, School Improvement Lead (Primary). On each occasion we will have school plans available, and will be able to answer any questions you might have.

Monday 17 November: 4.00pm – 5.30pm
Friday 21 November: 10.00am – 11.00am
Tuesday 25 November: 4.00pm – 5.30pm
